ALLEGED TRINITARIO INDICTED IN STABBING MURDER OF LESANDRO “JUNIOR” GUZMAN-FELIZ

Defendant Allegedly Plotted With 12 Men To Hunt For Member of Upstart Set, Chased Teen and Later Gathered With Co-Defendants After Murder

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced that a Bronx man has been indicted in the fatal stabbing of 15-year-old Lesandro Guzman-Feliz on June 20, 2018 in the Bronx.

District Attorney Clark said, “This defendant is an additional perpetrator to the previously indicted 12 men in this brutal attack on a 15-year-old boy, Lesandro “Junior” Guzman-Feliz, whom they came upon as they sought to commit violence against a rival set within the gang. We will not tolerate violence by gangs on our streets, and anyone who plays a role in such crimes will be prosecuted.”

District Attorney Clark said the defendant, Ronald Urena, 29, of 2780 Grand Concourse, has been indicted on second-degree Murder, first-degree Manslaughter, second-degree Conspiracy, first-degree Gang Assault, second-degree Gang Assault, and fourth-degree Criminal Possession of a Weapon. He was arraigned today before Bronx Supreme Court Justice Robert Neary. He was remanded and is due back in court on October 25, 2018. If convicted of the top charge, he can face up to 25 years to life in prison.

According to the investigation, on June 20, 2018, the defendant, who allegedly is part of the “Los Sures” set of the Trinitarios gang, gathered with co-defendants at the Boston Road home of Diego Suero, alleged leader of Los Sures, to plan to commit violence against another set of the Trinitarios called “Sunset.” The defendants then travelled in four cars, and came upon the victim, who fled from them, running approximately four blocks to a bodega in Belmont, where he tried to hide. The victim was dragged out of the store and repeatedly stabbed and slashed with knives and a machete.

According to the investigation, after the stabbing, the defendants fled and went back to Diego Suero's home to hide weapons and provide aid to a defendant whose hand was cut in the midst of the stabbing.

The investigation is ongoing.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant District Attorneys Morgan Dolan and Masateru Marubashi of the Homicide Bureau under the supervision of Christine Scaccia, Chief of the Homicide Bureau, and the overall supervision of Theresa Gottlieb, Chief of the Trial Division, and Terry Gensler, Deputy Chief of the Narcotics & Gangs Investigation Bureau and Gary Heavner, Chief of the Narcotics and Gangs Investigation Bureau, under the overall supervision of Jean T. Walsh, Chief of the Investigations Division.

An indictment is an accusatory instrument and not proof of a defendant's guilt.
