BRONX DISTRICT ATTORNEY DARCEL D. CLARK ANNOUNCES HIRING OF 98 ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEYS

Bronx District Attorney Darcel D. Clark today announced the appointment of 98 new Assistant District Attorneys to the Bronx District Attorney's Office.

District Attorney Clark said, "Our 98 new Assistant District Attorneys are ready to undertake months of rigorous training to prepare them to serve the Bronx community. This is our largest ADA class yet, and they will complement our seasoned, dedicated prosecutors in our mission of pursuing justice with integrity. I thank my Recruitment, Human Resources and Litigation Training staffs for their tireless efforts in bringing the class aboard."

The 2024 class is diverse and comes from the top law schools in the New York area, as well as from law schools across the nation.

Today marks the beginning of a three-month intensive training program consisting of lectures on criminal court practice and professional responsibility, observation of court proceedings, workshops and more.
